At D/FW Hindu Temple Cultural Hall

Onam is celebrated as the home coming of beloved King Mahabali, who ruled over Kerala in the age of plenty and was sent to the infernal world (Patála) by Lord Vishnu in the form of Vamanavatar. People make all kinds of offerings to God. But the greatest of them is to offer oneself. That is what Mahabali did. Emperor Mahabali surrendered totally to the Supreme. As per Srimad Bhagavatham ThiruOnam (3rd day of Onam) is when Lord appeared on earth as Vamanavatar. Bali is such an example of Bhakti and supreme sacrifice and remembers that the term "Bali" has several meanings such as: offering, dedication and sacrifice.
